The one to one consultations will be in collaboration with the Graduate Campus-UNIL.

Consultations with Verity Elston

Head of career advice for the Graduate Campus at the University of Lausanne, and director of her own company, Portfolio Formation Sàrl, Verity Elston was previously director of the CUSO Transversal Programme and prior to that, Deputy to the Dean of the EPFL Doctoral School. She has broad professional experience in the private and public sectors in several countries, including in middle- and high-level recruitment. She holds a doctorate in Anthropology from the University of Chicago, the FSEA certificate in adult education, and the ACC certificate in integral coaching. She conducts ongoing qualitative and quantitative research and analysis on the career paths of doctorate holders in Switzerland and in Europe.

Verity is available for individual consultations on your professional development as a PhD, whatever (and wherever) your career goals. This includes a range of support, from making the decision between an academic or non-academic career, to clarifying your short- and long-term objectives, to help with the practical tools of CVs, cover letters and online profiles.

TO RESERVE YOUR APPOINTMENT:
Please write to graduatecampus@unil.ch, with the details of who you wish to speak with, and when you would be able to meet (please give us 2 or 3 options - we’ll prioritise your first choice, as best we can!)

Consultations with Benjamin Rudaz

Benjamin is your first contact for questions around your doctorate (or postdoctorate), from the relationship with your supervisor to issues of motivation, and on the concrete aspects of working conditions and funding. He will either be able to respond directly, or he’ll send you to best person or service who can best respond.
